OUTRIGGER ROYAL KAHANA

Like a stoic sentinel, the West Maui Mountains stand guard over a landscape embellished with lovely beaches and bays and a necklace of resorts that are among the finest in the state. It's no wonder this is Maui's busiest vacation destination.

You can catch a glimpse of Hawaii's most famous visitors here each year, from December through May. When winter hits, pods of humpbacks migrate from frigid Alaskan waters to the warmth of the Pacific to breed and bear their young. Few sights are as breathtaking as a mighty whale breaching, spouting, waving its fins and slapping its tail on a cushion of undulating blue. Located right on the beach in Kahana, the 236-room Outrigger Royal Kahana offers prime views of this spectacular show.

Nestled between Kaanapali and Kapalua, the majority of its air-conditioned suites overlook the ocean and, in the distance, the neighboring islands of Molokai and Lanai.

Comfort, convenience and privacy are the watchwords at this first-class condominium resort. Each of its studio, one- and two-bedroom units boast spacious living areas, a lanai and a full kitchen equipped with a refrigerator, oven, microwave, coffee maker and toaster.

Other thoughtful amenities include color cable TV, washer/dryer, ceiling fans, and an iron and ironing board.

Aloha is abundant; there's daily housekeeping service, an activities desk to help you plan your itinerary and complimentary morning coffee in the lobby. Go for a dip in the oceanfront pool, picnic in the barbecue area, play a few matches on two tennis courts, work out in the fitness center, then relax in the sauna. Fun is the aim at Outrigger Royal Kahana.

The beach, of course, is a major lure. Swim, sail and snorkel. Build sand castles. Enjoy spectacular whale watching in the winter months. Walk barefooted along our stretch of golden sand, relishing the companionship of the sun, breezes and daydreams.
